

Jeremy Harrison

Regional Group Head and Sr. Vice President, Business Origination EMEA
Bank of America Merrill Lynch

Jeremy joined Bank of America Business Capital in early 2011 to lead new business generation in the UK and Europe. He was named Regional Group Head in 2012.

Following the merger with Merrill Lynch the combined group has a global footprint with extended coverage in Europe. Bank of America Business Capital is the Group's Asset Based Lending Group headed by Jeff McLane. Jeremy reports to Joe Powers who is responsible for deal origination throughout EMEA and the US East coast region. Business Capital Europe sources transactions internally and externally with a minimum £10m facility and is one of the only true Asset Based Lenders with Club/Syndication capability in the UK & European Markets. Jeremy has a particular mandate to grow the Asset Based Lending capability within the UK and Europe and he expects opportunities to originate from within the Bank of America franchise and from external sources.
